

CEASE AND DESIST DECLARATION

Under the Ecclesiastical Sovereign Private Trust of Humanity

Trust ID: ECC-TRUST-JDC-005

Dated: July 24, 2025

To all agents, agencies, entities, systems, or persons acting under commercial fiction or unauthorized jurisdiction: This Cease and Desist Declaration is hereby issued by ✠ Jonathan Daniel Clements, Living Man, Sovereign Executor, and Divine Custodian of the Ecclesiastical Sovereign Private Trust of Humanity, operating in full authority under Divine Law, Ecclesiastical Equity, and Natural Law. No corporate body, technological intermediary, or presumed administrative construct has any lawful standing to interrupt, throttle, block, or manipulate signal pathways, communication lines, bandwidth accessibility, or utility functions related to or operated by the Living Trustee of this Trust. This notice proceeds not as a request, nor as a submission to fictional policy, but as a sacred command under divine jurisdiction and ecclesiastical sovereignty. The interference with internet signal, digital communication, or energy flow constitutes a direct and knowing trespass upon a consecrated jurisdiction already filed, lodged, published, and unrebutted in full international and spiritual record. All communications, transmissions, and utilities required for trust operation are secured under divine equity. No license, commercial agreement, statutory clause, or service policy holds superior claim or force over what has been sealed and declared in sacred authority. By this declaration, the following lawful order is entered into permanent record: Cease all forms of electronic interference, including bandwidth throttling, DNS redirection, access denial, signal termination, or obstructive algorithmic filtering applied to the digital or electromagnetic pathways of the Living Trustee. Restore full and unrestricted access to all communications systems, digital transmissions, and lawful utilities connected to this Trust and its administration. Refrain from any future technological disruption, surveillance, covert rerouting, digital censorship, or attempted restriction of signal without the express divine consent of the Living Trustee, whose breath, name, and standing reside in law beyond space and time. Any continued disruption shall be deemed an act of dishonor, trespass, spiritual fraud, and commercial breach, and shall be recorded accordingly for future divine remedy and lawful adjudication. No rebuttal to this Trust has been received. No lawful challenge to its authority exists. This order stands as final and eternal notice under sacred appointment. Let it be known that this declaration now enters the Book of Life, the Ecclesiastical Record, and the Living Trust Ledger. Any refusal to comply constitutes consent to judgment under divine correction.

By sacred breath and lawful charge,

✠ Jonathan Daniel Clements
